Executive Committee

The committee met April 22 to discuss action on several matters. Approval was given to allow our large tent to be used at the Ohio State IDPA Championship in August. Approval was also given for the purchase of replacement steel targets for the pistol range and limestone for the lower range area. Plans were discussed to repair the trap houses and replace the steps and platform on the left side high house skeet house.

Youth Silhouette Match

The first Youth Silhouette shoot of the season had four shooters come out to knock off all the rust that accumulated over the winter. Results were very good and they will get event better with some more practice.

Brianna Parker (bagged): 5 chickens, 5 pigs, 5 turkeys, 4 rams

Desarae Parker (bagged): 5 chickens, 5 pigs, 5 turkeys, 5 rams

Taylor Wills (standing): 4 chickens, 3 pigs, 0 turkeys, 4

rams
 Kyle Baker (standing): 5 chickens, 5 pigs, 4 turkeys, 5 rams
 All four shooters also earned patches signifying membership with the Junior USA Shooting Team for 2008. Membership requires scoring a minimum of 35 points with five shots at 50 feet. Congratulations are in order for all the participants.

Skeet Leagues

Both Monday and Tuesday Night Skeet Leagues are in full swing. It is rumored that occasionally a bird is missed by one of the shooters but this cannot be confirmed.

Safety Reminder

Ever wonder why we are so insistent on eye protection? Those who were there at the April Pin Match can explain it to you. We all witnessed the total destruction of a Smith & Wesson Model 27 revolver. With a loud boom the top 4 chambers of the cylinder and the top strap disappeared in a cloud of smoke. Luckily the shooter and the timer standing beside him were unhurt. Things happen. Always wear eye protection whether you are the shooter, timer or just a spectator.

Membership Reminder

Just a reminder to all members that 2008 dues ($30) are overdue. They can be paid to Fred Smith at the range or mail to:

Fred Smith
 1934 Blue Ave
 Zanesville, OH 43701

Remember you must have your NRA member number & expiration date.

Upcoming Gun Shows
