Tuesday Afternoons

It has been a quiet month since our favorite shooting range closed for the season on December 10. But remember that “closed” is not really “closed” if you are a LLRPC member. Tuesday afternoons (usually 3 to 5 or 6 pm) the range is open for rifle or pistol shooting. We have an IDPA fun shoot on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday and Bowling Pin practice on the 1st and 3rd, but you are welcome to shoot whatever you like. We are all happy to share the range and remember you are also permitted to bring guests. The cost is $3 for members and $6 for non-members.

Web Site

Terry is also opening the range to the public on some week-ends if the weather report is positive.

I haven't heard how well this is going, but I have seen some piles of brass left by shooters.

Terry has also put together a web site for the range.

Check this out at WWW.LLRPC.com The site already looks great and it is still under construction. If you have ideas let Terry know as I am sure he would welcome the input.

Executive Committee to Meet

The executive committee plans to meet immediately after the regular monthly members meeting, Sunday January 14th. Topics to be discussed include a financial report on the operation of the range, LLRPC finances, changes to the club bylaws, and plans for the future.
