Changes for 2009

LLRPC and Dillon Sportsman Center has been blessed with wonderful employees over the past few years. Jason Felumlee, Rob Sowers, Kyle Tyson, and Billy Mansfield have all been the smiling face the members and the public see behind the counter. From loading the trap and skeet machines to sweeping brass to making target stands, these are the people that handled the day to day operation of our range. Without their efforts many of the things we take for granted at the range would not have been possible. It is with some sadness that we announce that these faces will not be behind the counter this year but hopefully will be seen on the skeet and trap field, rifle and pistol range, and involved in other range and club activities.

Rob Ripple has been hired to manage and operate the range for the 2009 season. Many of us that have been a part of Dillon for many years remember Rob serving as manager in the past. He has met with the executive committee to discuss new ideas for increased revenue for the range and future growth in the number of shooters and activities at Dillon. In addition to running the daily operation of the range, Rob is also taking over the mowing , and much of the equipment maintenance. He has already begun some target repairs and the overhaul of our older trap machines. Rob will work closely with the executive committee to make your club and shooting range something we can all be proud of.

Concealed Carry Class Offered

A CCW class will be offered at the range March 20 and 21. Anyone interested should contact Rob Ripple at 754-3319.

Pin Match Double Bonus

For the March Pin Match each shooter can get a double free bonus. We will again offer a 9mm man on man stage for those interested and a free .22 action rifle match immediately after the pin match. No extra charge but lots of extra fun. Bring your .22 rifles, 3 mags, and at least 100 rounds of ammo .

Work Party

Plan ahead for the March 21 Work Party at Dillon. Bring shovels and rakes and maybe some cleaning supplies. We will put together a list of chores to be completed that day. The day will start at 10:00. If the weather is bad call the range to see if we rescheduled. (452-3529)

Dues Deadline

Don't forget that dues are due by April 1st. Individual dues are $30 and family dues are $45. Fred also needs your NRA membership number and expiration date.
