The Flood of 2008

With fears of deja vue all over again, members and friends gathered to move equipment, bowling pins, and skeet machines away from the rising flood waters of Dillon Lake. This time however, we had an early warning, a speedy response, less water, better weather and almost no damage. With the exception of a couple of stacks of bowling pins we are walking around everything is back to normal. All members should give a big thanks to those who responded to the call.

March Bowling Pin Match

For the first time in a long time, a bowling pin match was cancelled. We used to say “neither rain nor snow nor gloom of night”, but nothing was said about a blizzard. The Blizzard of 2008 and the Level 2 driving warnings forced us to cancel. Luckily those needing their “pin shooting fix” can be accommodated this coming Sunday, April 13.

Gun Show News

In a month filled with unusual occurrences another strange event happened last weekend with the cancellation of the PRO gun show scheduled for Vets Memorial in Columbus. As several of us planned our trip we discovered the show was not only cancelled but the promoter of the shows for the last 15 years had skipped town, shredded records, and left a trail of unpaid bills. The PRO web site has a statement with more details. The status of future shows is unknown so I have not included any PRO shows in the Upcoming Gun Shows listing.

Skeet Leagues

The Tuesday Night Skeet group kicked off their Spring League April 1, but it is not too late to join if you would like to shoot. The cost is $15 plus range fees. The $15 pays for the trophies and the banquet at the end. The Monday Night group is still looking for shooters. I believe their first shoot is scheduled for April 28 and interested shooters should sign up at Dillon, or show up that afternoon. Contact Rick Redman for more details.

Friends of NRA Banquet

The local Friends of NRA Banquet will be held at Zanesville’s Prophets Park, April 18th. Tickets cost $25, which includes a nice steak dinner. This is an excellent way to thank the NRA for all the help they have given us and have some fun.

Membership Reminder

Just a reminder to all members that 2008 dues ($30) are due April 1, and can be paid to Fred Smith at the range or mail to:
