Season Winding Down

If colder weather and shorter days were not depressing enough another “downer” is looming on the horizon. This year the range will close for the season November 29. That’s right we only have 20 odd shooting days left untilwell until the warmer days of spring 2010. Don’t let these days slip by without getting out and shooting up all that pesky ammo that is taking up space in your gun cabinet. Also remember that the range never closes for those hardy Bowling Pin shooters. Matches will continue to be held the 2nd Sunday of the month all through the winter. Other plans for range usage after we close to the public are being discussed including possible matches held during the day and/or air rifle shooting in the basement. Let one of the club officers know if you are interested in either.

Classified Ads

I am planning to steal an idea from club member Doug Schultheis. Starting with the November newsletter I will use the space in usually reserved for match results to print ads for club members that want to sell guns, ammo, reloading supplies, holsters, hunting equipment, and other shooting related items. Members can e-mail or snail mail their ads to me and I will include them in the newsletter. I do not want to get into proof reading submissions, so if you want to sell a “Smith and Wilson revolver”, that is what I will print. Please include your name and phone number so those interested can contact you.

Turkey Shoot

Boy Scout Troop 137 from the Philo/Duncan Falls area is sponsoring a turkey shoot at the range on November 14th from 9 to 4. Rob also has a CCW class taking place at the same time, so any club member that is available to provide volunteer help should see Rob. I am sure the scouts will have adult help but anything we can do to assist them would be welcomed.
